FOREWORD

POETRY is published monthly under the sponsorship of the Modern Poetry Association, which is incorporated not-for-profit. The editorial offices are at 1018 North State Street, Chicago 10, Illinois. October 1962 marked the fiftieth anniversary of this magazine, a half-century of uninterrupted monthly publication. The present index ends with the September 1962 issue, completing the one hundredth volume. The next volume begins with a double issue for October-November 1962 celebrating the golden anniversary.

The first editor and founder of POETRY was the late Harriet Monroe. The present editor is Henry Rago.

The index is arranged chronologically according to the last name of the author. Under the name of the author are arranged the poems, articles, books reviewed, and reviews he has contributed to POETRY Magazine.
